For the avoidance of doubt, this Byelaw shall not apply if an individual has represented a Commonwealth Country at a Commonwealth Youth Games. Applications under this Byelaw 17(6) must be submitted to the Executive Board two calendar months before the “final entries deadline”* for the respective Commonwealth Games. Applications must include formal confirmation of the prior approval of the relevant IF and the relevant previously represented Affiliated CGA.

SECTION D - CODE OF ETHICS AND CONDUCT

A. PURPOSE, SCOPE AND APPLICATION

1. CGF VISION, MISSION AND CORE VALUES

- 1.1 The CGF has adopted this Code (under CGF Byelaw 11) in order to further its Vision and Mission, and to support and uphold its Core Values.

2. INTERPRETATION

- 2.1 Conduct prohibited under this Code might also amount to a criminal offence and/or a breach of other applicable laws or rules and regulations, in national jurisdictions and/or under the rules and regulations of International Federations and/or other sports governing bodies and/or other types of regulatory bodies. This Code is intended not to replace such laws and regulations, but to supplement them with further rules of conduct for those involved in the Commonwealth Sports Movement, in order to ensure the highest ethical standards, apply and to maintain public confidence in the image and integrity of the Commonwealth Sports Movement and the Commonwealth Games. It is to be interpreted and applied accordingly.
- 2.2 Capitalised words and phrases appearing in this Code are defined terms, unless specified or the context dictates otherwise. They have the meaning set out in Appendix [1] to this Code.
- 2.3 The commentary notes annotating certain Articles in this Code are to be used in the interpretation and application of this Code. Any documents published by the CGF in relation to this Code (for example, but without limitation, guidance documents in relation to behavioural standards) may also be used as interpretative aids.
- 2.4 The headings used in this Code are for the purpose of guidance only. They do not affect the meaning of this Code.
- 2.5 Unless specified or the context otherwise requires, words in this Code noting any one gender include all other genders, and words denoting the singular include the plural and vice versa.

3. PERSONS BOUND BY THIS CODE

- 3.1 This Code applies in its entirety to all CGAs, CGOCs, CGA Officials, CGF Officials, CGOC Officials, Bid Committee Members and any other persons who from time to time are involved in the governance and administration of the Commonwealth Games (each, a Covered Person).
- 3.2 For the avoidance of doubt:
- 3.2.1 A Covered Person may be a natural person or a legal person (or other entity).
- 3.2.2 This Code will not apply to officers or employees of the CGF's commercial partners (unless agreed otherwise in writing). However, all such commercial partners are encouraged to put in place similar codes or policies based on similar principles and rules as contained in this Code, to be binding upon all such individuals in their dealings with the CGF.
- 3.2.3 Athletes and Athlete Support Personnel will be covered by a separate code of conduct.
- 3.3 Covered Persons will be bound by and required to comply with this Code: (a) whenever they are acting in any capacity in connection with a Commonwealth Games Entity; and (b) at any other time where their conduct reflects (or has the potential to reflect) upon the CGF or the Commonwealth Games. Covered Persons may be required to sign the acknowledgement form set out at Appendix [2] to this Code, but whether or not they have signed such an acknowledgment, by being involved in the governance and administration of the Commonwealth Games, Covered Persons will be bound by this Code.

- 3.4 Covered Persons will cease to be bound by this Code as of the date that they cease to perform any role and/or to conduct activities that qualify them as a Covered Person, save that they will remain subject to this Code in respect of matters occurring prior to that date. If a Covered Person resigns during (but prior to the completion of) any investigation or proceedings against him under the Code, then without prejudice to the CGF's ability to continue with such investigation and/or proceedings in any event) the Covered Person will not be eligible to take up any position at (or otherwise have any dealings with) any Commonwealth Games Entity until he has submitted himself to and cooperated with the investigation, and any consequent proceedings have been completed.
- 3.5 All Covered Persons will be deemed to have agreed:
- 3.5.1 to be bound by and to comply with this Code and any related CGF policies (as set out at Article 4.1 below);
 - 3.5.2 to familiarise themselves with all of the requirements of this Code, including what conduct constitutes a violation of this Code and to seek clarification from the CGF and/or the CGF Ethics Officer in case of any doubt;
 - 3.5.3 to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the CGF Ethics Officer, the CGF Ethics Commission, and the CAS in relation to the enforcement of this Code (in accordance with this Code and any other applicable CGF regulations); and
 - 3.5.4 not to bring any proceedings in any court or other forum that are inconsistent with the foregoing submission to jurisdiction.
- 3.6 For the avoidance of doubt, this Code will not replace or in any way affect or alter the ability of the CGF and/or CGF Partnerships and/or Commonwealth Sports Foundation and/or any other relevant CGF entity's ability to pursue appropriate disciplinary action against any individual under the terms of any employment or consultancy contract and/or pursuant to any relevant employment policies in force from time to time. Where conduct prohibited under this Code also amounts to a breach of the terms of an employment or consultancy arrangement, the CGF and/or CGF Partnerships and/or Commonwealth Sports Foundation and/or any other relevant CGF entity will be entitled, at its absolute discretion, to elect only to pursue disciplinary action against such individual pursuant to the applicable employment or consultancy contract. - 4.3 This Code and the CGF Policies are also complemented by the CGF Whistleblowing Policy.

5. CGAS AND CGOCS

- 5.1 Without prejudice to the personal responsibility of each Covered Person for his own conduct, each CGA and CGOC is responsible for its own conduct and the conduct of its connected Covered Persons. For the avoidance of doubt, CGAs and CGOCs will themselves be deemed Covered Persons for those purposes (and may therefore be subject to investigation and proceedings under this Code).
- 5.2 Each CGA and CGOC is encouraged to adopt its own code(s) of conduct to govern the behaviour of those involved in their governance and administration (and, in the case of CGAs, Athletes and Athlete Support Personnel).
- 5.3 Where the same conduct could be pursued as a breach of this Code or a breach of a code adopted by a CGA or a CGOC, the CGF Ethics Officer, in his sole discretion, will determine whether the matter should be pursued by the relevant CGA or CGOC (for example, because it relates to a purely internal matter), or by the CGF Ethics Officer under this Code (which may be done in addition to, or as an alternative to, any action taken by a CGA or CGOC).
- 5.4 Each CGA and CGOC must (without the need for any further formality) recognise, respect and give effect to all decisions made in applying and enforcing this Code.

- 6.5 Covered Persons must not do anything that might improperly discriminate against anyone on the basis of ethnic origin, colour, race, nationality, culture, religion or belief (or lack thereof), political opinion (or lack thereof), gender, gender reassignment, sexual orientation or disability, or any other improper ground.
- 6.6 In addition to complying with all applicable laws and CGF Regulations, each Covered Person must conduct himself honestly, fairly, impartially and in accordance with the highest standards of integrity. He must avoid any conduct that is inconsistent with or that undermines in any way the objectives of this Code.
- 6.7 Covered Persons must avoid acts or omissions that give the appearance of impropriety, or that denigrate or detract from any Commonwealth Games Entity and/or the Commonwealth Games and/or CGF Officials, or that bring (or have the potential to bring) any Commonwealth Games Entity and/or the Commonwealth Games and/or CGF Officials and/or sport generally into disrepute.
- 6.8 A Covered Person must not use the Commonwealth Games to promote any political or religious agenda or personal financial interests.

- 6.9 A Covered Person must not abuse his position in any way, especially for private aims or objectives.

Note: It is not possible to draw up a definitive and exhaustive list of the types of conduct that may amount to a breach of the above-listed duties, and each case will necessarily depend upon its own facts.

- 6.10 Covered Persons must not be involved with entities or persons whose activities or reputations are inconsistent with the principles set out in this Code. In order for this provision to apply, it is necessary that the Covered Person has previously been advised in writing by the CGF Ethics Officer (which may be by way of general notice to Covered Persons, or any category of Covered Persons) that he should no longer associate with such entity/person (or category of entity/person), and of the consequences that may apply if he continues such association.

- 7.2 Each Covered Person must cooperate fully with all investigations carried out by the CGF Ethics Officer in relation to possible breaches of this Code (including, without limitation, by providing any information and/or documentation requested by the CGF Ethics Officer (or his appointee(s) as part of that investigation).

8. DEFENCE

- 8.1 It will be a valid defence to a charge of a breach of any provision of this Code if the Covered Person adduces sufficient credible evidence to prove, on the balance of probabilities, that genuine and powerful reasons exist (or existed) to objectively justify his/her conduct taking into account all the relevant circumstances (and for which purpose the right to invoke the privilege against self-incrimination is deemed to have been waived by each Covered Person and will not be a sufficient reason to objectively justify his/her conduct).

Note: It is intended that genuine and powerful reasons are to be interpreted as those that are truly exceptional. It is acknowledged that the assessment of 'genuine and powerful' will depend on the specific circumstances of a case (balanced alongside the seriousness of the alleged breach), but it is envisaged that it will include only cases where there is genuine, objective reason to consider that the Covered Person's and/or another person's health or well-being was otherwise at risk.

- 8.2 Under no circumstances will it be a valid defence to a charge of breach of this Code for a Covered Person to claim that he made a mistake as to the provisions of this Code or claim ignorance of such provisions.

9. ATTEMPT OR AGREEMENT TO BREACH, OR OTHER INVOLVEMENT IN BREACH

- 9.1 Where a Covered Person:

9.1.1 attempts or agrees with any other person to engage in conduct (whether by act or omission) that would culminate in a violation of this Code (unless the Covered Person renounces his attempt or agreement prior to it being discovered by a third party not involved in the attempt or agreement);

9.1.2 solicits, induces, instructs, persuades or encourages any person to engage in conduct (whether by act or omission) that would amount to a breach of this Code if committed by the Covered Person himself; and/or

9.1.3 authorises, causes, or knowingly assists, encourages, aids and abets, covers up, or is otherwise complicit in, any act or omission by any person that would amount to a breach of this Code if committed by the Covered himself;

the Covered Person will be treated as if he committed such act or omission, whether or not such an act or omission in fact resulted in a violation and whether or not the violation was committed deliberately, recklessly or negligently, and he will be liable accordingly under this Code.
